The University of Montana School of Education

Department of Curriculum and Instruction Doctoral Degree Program Plan

Please complete this plan, have your adviser sign, and file with the secretary in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction office, ED 210, during the first term of enrollment.

Name	SS #
Address	Phone
City State	Zip
Adviser	Admission Date
Primary Area(30 credits minimum)	Supporting Area(20 credits minimum)
C&I 506 Comparative Education (Spand C&I 510 Advanced Educational Technology : (3) C&I 515 (3) Computer & Other Teresearch: (26) C&I 694 (1) Advanced Seminar in	History of American Education (Sp, Su-odd); Sp even); C&I 508 Sociology of Education (F even); Il Psychology (F odd) echnological Applications in Education (Sp even, Sun C&I Doctoral Studies (first autumn) s in Education (autumn and spring) h (every semester) s (spring) n (autumn)
Primary Area Course # Title	Credits Semester

Supporting		O 1'4	Composite
Course #	Title	Credits	Semester
Other
Course #	Title	Credits	Semester
Date for C	Comprehensive Examination:
	ester credits are accepted for transfer credit with		nd the graduate school of 90 semester credits including the master's de of 9 semester credits outside the School of Educ of 2/3 of all course work in the primary area mu		as a minimum of 2/3 o work in	cluded in the plan.
	ompletion of a departmental comprehensive exa	mination, and application for	or graduation immedia
after pa	ssing. nents for the degree must be completed within a n	maximum of 10 years with	the further restriction
	ing the dissertation within 5 years of admission		the further restriction
zempie.	g
Advise	er's Signature and Date	Student's Signatu	re and Date